

Where to Eat in Santiago

A Taste of Chile & Latin America

Near Nido Lucía – Territoria

Great options within walking distance (5–15 minutes).

Soho Thai

Carmen 93,
Santiago Centro
Thai cuisine with a varied menu.

Como en Perú

Merced 456,
Santiago Centro
Peruvian cuisine,
ceviche and seafood.

El Ají Seco Místico

Enrique Mac Iver 366,
Santiago Centro
Peruvian classics,
ceviche and generous portions.

More Options in the Historic Centre

Traditional and popular restaurants, all within easy reach.

El Portal (Ex Bahamondes)

Portal Fernández Concha, Plaza de Armas 946,
Santiago Centro
Classic Chilean fuente de soda, known for completos and sandwiches.

La Unión Chica

Nueva York 11,
Santiago Centro
Traditional Chilean dishes in a historic downtown setting.

Duri Sushi

Agustinas 984,
Santiago Centro
Popular Japanese restaurant known for sushi and generous portions.

Bar Nacional

Santiago Centro
Tradicional Chilean-style bar-restaurant serving classic dishes.

Nuria

Huérfanos 964,
Santiago Centro
Classic downtown restaurant with Chilean dishes, sandwiches
| pisco.

Marco Polo

Plaza de Armas 416,
Santiago Centro
Traditional downtown
restaurant with Chilean dishes and casual options.

Mercado Central de Santiago

A Seafood Tradition

Santiago's historic Central Market is a must-visit to enjoy fresh fish and shellfish, ceviche, paila marina and other Chilean seafood dishes in a unique traditional setting.

San Pablo 967,
Santiago Centro

Chilean Cuisine & the Pacific Ocean

Chile has more than 4,000 km of Pacific coastline, making seafood an important part of its cuisine.

Reineta

Congrio

Machas

Locos

Pastel de Jaiba

Ceviche

Empanada
de pino

Pastel de choclo

Cazuela

Completo italiano

Pisco sour

Chilean seafood

Chilean Flavors to Try

Discover some of the most traditional dishes and drinks in Chile.

Avoid Street Food

While Santiago has many food options, we recommend avoiding street food, as it may not always meet the same hygiene standards as restaurants and can cause stomach issues, especially for visitors.

Useful Tips for Dining Out

Opening Hours

Lunch: 12:30 – 15:30
Dinner: 19:30 – 23:00
(times may vary)

Payment Methods

Most restaurants accept credit and debit cards. It's always good to have some cash (CLP).

Tipping

A tip of 10% is customary if the service is good.
It's not mandatory,
but it is appreciated.

For Groups

For large groups or dinner reservations, especially on weekends, we recommend, booking in advance.

Enjoy the Local Gastronomy

From traditional Chilean dishes to international cuisine, Santiago offers a wide variety of flavors in a safe and welcoming environment.

Buen provecho!